SCHOOL BUILDING PROGRAM PROPOSED

Reveals 1962-63 Budget

'No New Taxes,' Rhodes Says In State Message

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Republican Gov. James A. Rhodes has told the Ohio Legislature, in effect: no new taxes—and cut the garment to fit the cloth. Yet he proposed to spend $53 million more than the 1962-63 budget.

Under the Rhodes austerity program for state government, no state programs will improve.

Voting System Ruled Illegal

Top Court Decision Voids Georgia Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lawyers fighting for more political power for city folks and suburbanites got a big lift today out of a "one person, one vote" decision by the U.S. Supreme Court.

To Charles S. Rhyne, former president of the American Bar Association and attorney for city dwellers, the decision points in only one direction:

Eventually—and probably sooner than many people think—both houses of each state legislature in the 50 states will be apportioned according to population. This would indeed be a political revolution, turning many a politician's plans and future topsy-turvy.

But the day is not yet, and a leader on the other side of the fight, Brevard Crisfield, executive secretary of the Council of State Governments, sees a long, controversy-strewn road ahead.

Crisfield holds with retired Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter that the high court was unwise to venture into the "political thicket" of voting apportionment. "I foresee," Crisfield told a newsman today, "almost limitless litigation and confusion ahead of us, to the detriment of orderly governmental processes."

"Actually Monday's 8-1 decision did not deal with apportionment of state legislatures—though many lawyers felt it inscribed certain handwriting on the wall."

What it did was to administer the coup de grace to Georgia's old county unit system for reckoning results of statewide Democratic primaries. The system, before it was revamped somewhat in a vain attempt to get by the courts, made a farmer's vote in the least populous county worth 99 times the vote of an Atlanta citizen.

This was done by providing that a governorship candidate, for example, who carried a county got all its unit votes. One result was that red-gallied Gene Talmadge, late governor, once remarked that he never bothered to campaign in a community big enough to have streetcar tracks.

The system was knocked out by a lower federal court, and last year's Georgia primary was on a popular basis. An appeal was filed however, and Monday he unit system went out the window irrevocably. Writing for the majority, Justice William O. Douglas said the concept of political equality, from the Declaration of Independence down, "can mean only one thing—one person, one vote."

To the dissenter, Justice John M. Harlan, this "flies in the face of history." He said the idea of "one person, one vote" has never been universally accepted in England or this country.

Harlan said he could not deem it irrational for Georgia to "apply its county unit system to the selection of candidates for . . . state-wide offices in order to assure against a predominantly 'city

Some will stay the same; others will slide back a bit.

The governor told an applauding, GOP-controlled legislature Monday night in a nine-minute message, the shortest in recent memory.

"This budget is cut to rock bottom . . . to keep it within expected income."

Since the Rhodes administration submitted its highway and highway safety budgets to the legislature earlier—and highway funds may be used only for highway purposes—a direct comparison can be made only between Rhodes' general fund budget and the amount the state actually spent in general fund money in 1962-63 under Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle.

The $53-million increase under the Rhodes budget is a result of that comparison.

Rhodes, through Finance Director Richard L. Krabach, who prepared the budget, proposes state spending of $1.28 billion of general fund money in the next two years in addition to about $768 million in highway funds.

Rhodes asserted: "This budget allows for an economic development getting Ohio moving ahead . . . We trail far behind the national average in most everything but poor relief. We have the dubious distinction of being first in the nation in the number of poor relief recipients."

Most of the increase proposed by Rhodes is for education—both public and higher education—strictly on the basis of present built-in boosts directed by the present law.

Krabach's briefing of newsmen before the governor's delivery of the combined budget message and the state-of-the-state message developed this picture of state finances, despite earlier reports of

Memorial Day Plans Made By City Units

The Salem Memorial Day Association consisting of representatives from various patriotic organizations in the area met in the G.A.R. Hall recently to make Memorial Day plans.

For the 13th year, the association elected as general chairman Carl Burcaw, commander of the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War. Betty Mack of the American Legion Auxiliary was re-elected to serve as secretary, and John Herman Jr., American Legion commander, was again chosen to be parade marshal.

Organizations represented at the meeting were: Veterans of Foreign Wars, V.F.W. Auxiliary, American Legion, American Legion Auxiliary, Disabled American Veterans, Amvets, Amvets Auxiliary, Daughters of the American Revolution, Daughters of the Union Veterans of the Civil War, and Sons of the Union Veterans of the Civil War.

Mrs. R. W. Broomall was chosen to be president of the day at Hope Cemetery. Appointed to the speakers committee were Mrs. John Stein Jr. and Olive Baxter. Other committees are: Arrangements, Mrs. John Stein Jr., Harold Huttenhower, G. M. Sutherland, Harold Huttenhower, Mrs. Charles Oertel, and Gertrude Stewart. Music, G. M. Sutherland, Edward Furrer, and Francis Himmelpach; Gettysburg address, Frank Hoopes; flags, Carl Burcaw, Harold Huttenhower, G. M. Sutherland, John Herman Jr.; publicity, Tom Cusack.

All veterans are invited to a memorial service to be conducted by Rev. W. S. Longworth at the Methodist Church on Sunday, May 26.

The next meeting of the Memorial Day Association is scheduled to be held April 19 at the G.A.R. Hall.

Calcutta Man Gets Award at Patrol Auxiliary Banquet

Clayton Aughinbaugh of Calcutta received an award for outstanding service in 1962 at the annual awards banquet of the State Highway Patrol Auxiliary Monday night at Grady's Restaurant.

Aughinbaugh, 35, compiled the most hours on duty assisting regular patrolmen of the Lisbon barracks. A Marine Corps veteran, he is an employee of an East Liverpool lumber firm.

Presenting the plaque was Lt. Carl Whipple of the Warren District Patrol Headquarters, who also reviewed the history of the Auxiliary which was formed in 1942 to assist the regular patrol because of manpower shortage during wartime.

Jim Shipley of radio station WSOM spoke about programming methods and other operations of the FM station.

Robert Boyd of East Liverpool, captain of the Auxiliary, presided. Forty Auxiliary members and their wives and guests were present.

JFK Set for More Talks In Costa Rica

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica, (AP)—President Kennedy set out today to translate a personal triumph into meaningful policy guidelines acceptable to the United States and the leaders of six Latin American nations.

Kennedy, who received a wildly enthusiastic welcome Monday from nearly 200,000 Costa Ricans, scheduled morning and afternoon meetings with the presidents of Panama and the five Central American republics.

Their aim was to draft by tonight a "declaration of San Jose" which Kennedy said he hoped would help "improve the life of our peoples" and "increase our capacity to prevent the infiltration of Cuban agents, money and propaganda" into the nations of the Western Hemisphere.

The U.S. president told his colleagues at the opening conference session: "We will build a wall around Cuba—not a wall of mortar or brick or barbed wire but a wall of dedicated men determined to protect their own freedom and sovereignty."

The Soviet news agency Tass, commenting on these words, said they "conceal a desire to form a common front of the reactionary forces of the states which are dependent on the United States for fresh aggression against Cuba." Kennedy charged that "the Soviet Union through its Cuban puppets absorbed the Cuban nation into its despotic empire—and it now seeks to extend its rule to the shores of continental America."

600 Attend School Bands' Concert

Six hundred persons attended the three-band concert last night in the Salem Junior High School auditorium.

Performing were the 36-member seventh grade band and 64-member eighth and ninth grade group under the direction of Richard Howenstine.

Howard Pardee conducted the 56-member Senior High School Band in six selections.

Fiscal Measure Totals $1,463,657

Board's Appropriation For '63 Is Reduced By $17,358

A 1963 appropriation of $1,463,657 was approved Monday night by the Salem Board of Education. It is $17,358 less than the $1,481,015 allocated for '62.

The sole areas of increase in the tight budget were in salaries and debt service. The amount allocated for salaries — $1,117,140 compared to $1,083,330 in 1962 — reflects the salary improvement approved by the board last year, Superintendent of Schools Paul Smith said.

However, there is no provision for any salary increases this year. "Thus we will lose our previous gains in state-wide competition for the selection and retention of a good staff," the administrator said.

The increase in debt service includes the plan for assisting the Trades and Industries program.

ALL OTHER appropriation areas were trimmed to present a balanced budget. Amount allotted to supplies decreased from $92,085 to $75,000 and capital outlay from $46,916 to $5,034.

The capital outlay reduction will delay the proposed plans for landscaping and improving the front of the Junior High School as well as plans for improving the lighting and heating systems of the Junior High, Smith said.

He advocated a continuous study of "the present legislation which provides the auditor's and treasurer's office some fee for

Board Seeks Renewal Of 2 School Levies

The renewal of two Salem public schools levies—one for 5.4 mills and one for 1.9—will be placed on the May 7 primary ballot, it was decided Monday night at the Board of Education meeting.

The levies expire Dec. 31, 1963, and at present property tax re-evaluation figures, the renewal will produce an annual increase of some $19,000 over the base evaluation.

Supt. of Schools Paul E. Smith said this amount will help offset the loss under the State Foundation Program which results from any local increase in property evaluation.

If renewed, the levies would amount to 73 cents for each hundred dollars of valuation for the tax years 1963 through 1967.

collecting taxes, but which at the same time should not deprive the schools of Ohio of monies voted by each community for the operation of local schools." The fees are placed in the general operating fund of the county, Smith said, and in Salem's case this sum amounts to more than $33,000 or about six-tenths of a mill.

Tied in with the tight money situation, the Board agreed to charge students for some supplies which have been provided by the school system. The change is expected to save the school between $3,000 and $3,500 a year and would go into effect next fall.

The major changes are in a $1 art fee to be paid by seventh through ninth graders for supplies for the elective course, and an additional fee of $1 to help defray cost of language, spelling and

Morocco Rips French Tests In Sahara

RABAT, Morocco (AP) — King Hassan II has accused France of holding a new nuclear test in the Sahara. He ordered his Foreign Ministry to protest to the French government.

The Moroccan government said it learned an atomic device was exploded Monday in the Haggat region of the Sahara, near the Reggan testing site.

There have been no reports of a nuclear blast from any detection post on either side of the Iron Curtain.

Algeria threatened earlier Monday to break its economic cooperation agreements with France if President Charles de Gaulle ordered another test in the Sahara, which is part of newly independent Algeria. Rumors have been current for days that such an explosion was imminent, but the Moroccan report was the first claim that one had taken place.

The French government maintained its usual refusal either to

Cuban Exile Forces Hit Soviet Ship, Camp

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Cuban exile commandos shelled a Soviet military camp and a Soviet ship in a hit-and-run raid on a northern Cuban port city, anti-Castro group report. Some Russians were killed they said, and the raiders escaped.

Havana radio reported Monday night that some wounded sailors had been taken to a hospital, but the broadcast did not mention any raid.

The State Department said it had no information on the raid, and it and the Pentagon made no comment.

Spokesmen for two Cuban exile groups, Alpha 66 and the Second National Front of Escambray, said members of their organizations staged the attacks Sunday night. Alpha 66 and the Second Front joined forces last fall and have carried out raids on Cuba before.

The attack was described this way: The raiders divided into two camps just offshore from Sagua la Grande in Las Villas Province.

2.5-Mill Levy Necessary for 10-Year Plan

The Salem Board of Education Monday night offered sweeping changes and a building program based on a "pay-as-you-go" plan to meet school needs of the next 10 years as an alternative to acquiring the old Post Office, which, the board has learned, cannot be secured free from the government.

Major proposals of the building program, which would be financed by a 2.5-mill levy, call for:

1. Construction of a new elementary school in the east or south-east area of the city.
2. Razing of the old section of the Fourth Street School Building and replacing it with new classroom facilities.
3. Construction of additional classroom facilities at the Senior High School and transfer of ninth grade students from the Junior High School.
4. Addition of new classroom facilities at the remaining elementary schools and improvements in existing facilities where needed.

Cites Crowded Classroom Facilities

The comprehensive report noted the crowding in existing facilities, especially at the Junior High School, "which is literally bursting at the seams."

In light of "substantial community sentiment opposed to the incorporating the old post office into the school system," the board said it would welcome the reactivating of the Citizens Council to work with the board and

Need for Additional Building Space

"For some time the Board of Education has been aware of the increasing pressure in the school system for additional building space as well as the board's general responsibility to plan for the educational needs of the expanding school population in the future."

"Existing birth records and anticipated industrial growth in our community indicate that the school age population will outgrow some of our existing facilities in the next 10 years. The board is also aware of the need to replace existing facilities that will become fully depreciated in this same period of time."

"The coincidental circumstance of the availability of the old Post Office building brought this need for planning to a head."

We have, therefore, undertaken a preliminary study of the existing physical plant, the anticipated needs for expansion and the manner in which this might be financed.

"The main part of Fourth Street School building is reaching the end of its useful life and, for the sake of safety as well as economy, must be replaced."

School Population Outgrowing Space

"3. The population growth in the southeast and northeast parts of the city has resulted in the school population outgrowing the available space at McKinley School and is pressing the facilities at Reilly School. We now have one class of elementary school children at McKinley using adjacent church property. While this generous and economic sharing of facilities does not need to be replaced immediately, increasing school population in the eastern parts of the city could require additional classroom space in the next few years."

"4. The number of elementary school age children in the southwest part of the City has for sometime exceeded the capacity of Prospect School. This has resulted in shifting the overflow from this area to Fourth Street School. Rather than replace facilities for them at Fourth Street, additional classroom space should be provided at Prospect School. The benefits of this change are: A, eliminate some bus transportation expense; and B, provide expanded scholastic and athletic programs at Prospect School."

Administrative Offices Inadequate

"5. Existing administrative offices in the Junior High School building are inadequate, and there is a notable lack of storage space throughout the school system. If storage space and more adequate administrative offices were available, savings could be made: A, in more efficient use of administrative staff, and B, by school supplies."

"6. The Salem Technical School has tended to increase the pressure on the Junior High school facilities is to build additional classroom space at the Senior High School for the 9th grade, thus removing approximately one-third of the students from the existing Junior High buildings. School administrators advise us that a re-organization from the existing 6-3-3 system to a 6-2-4 (6 grade elementary, 2 year Junior High, 4 year High School) is practical educationally as well as physically. Additional Classrooms at Senior High

"1. The most direct solution to pressure on the Junior High school facilities is to build additional classroom space at the Senior High School for the 9th grade, thus removing approximately one-third of the students from the existing Junior High buildings. "A. The addition to the Senior High School would be the least expensive additional classroom space we could build."

"B. Moving the 9th grade group to the high school will improve the program in language, mathematics, English, music and physical education, and provide more efficient utilization of teaching staff."

"C. The vacated space in the features of this change are: Turn to SCHOOL, Page 14

Election of New Member Deferred

County Health Board Renames Howard Cole

Atty. Howard Cole of Lisbon was re-elected president of the Columbiana County Board of Health at its meeting Monday night in the Lisbon Courthouse.

Felix Butch was elected vice president, succeeding Dr. Leonard Pritchard of Columbiana. The remaining member is Fred Johnson of Summitville.

Because of the absence of Dr. Pritchard, the board deferred action on electing a new member, replacing Ernest Phillips of Summitville who resigned. Phillips was nominated by the Advisory Council March 5, but because he was a member of the council, the positions were declared incompatible.

A request by county sanitarian Harry Stockdale that the board require installation of 1,000-gallon septic tanks instead of 500-gallon tanks specified by the county health code was tabled. The board will seek a state recommendation before changing the requirement.

Dr. C. S. Palmer, county health commissioner, asked the board for permission to commit a county resident to the Ohio TB Hospital in Columbus. The person has an active form of the disease and has been in the TB clinic before, but refuses to stay. The board authorized Dr. Palmer to file the necessary papers.

President Howard Cole discussed sanitation in restaurants within the county health district. The sanitarian will make spot checks and those he finds in unsanitary condition will be ordered to make improvements or be closed.

A milk check of all dairies in the county also was authorized. Dr. Palmer presented the following monthly report:

The health department issued 11 plumbing and 3 sewage permits during the month. Sanitarian Stockdale made 33 food service inspections, 1 trailer park, 3 sewage, 6 nuisances, and 7 refuse. He visited 3 schools and took 5 water samples.

Plumbing Inspector Gene Cover made 32 plumbing inspections, 5 sewage, 17 water, 5 nuisance, 1 refuse and 1 food service.

County nurse, Mrs. Violet Peterson made 11 school visits, gave 174 immunizations, 33 polio shots and 156 vaccinations. She made 5 jail visits, 14 home, 2 hospital and 7 doctor's office. She held two pre-natal classes.

Her communicable disease report showed 45 chicken pox, 175 measles, 10 mumps, 25 rash and two cases of infectious hepatitis. The board's next meeting will be April 15 at 8 p.m.

Leetonia Lodge Plans Father-Son Banquet

LEETONIA — Leetonia Lodge, F & AM will hold its annual Father-Son Banquet at 6:30 p.m. Monday in the Masonic Temple. Stu Wilson, radio personality from Youngstown, will be guest speaker. A colored film will be shown.

Reservations must be in by Thursday. Members of the Order of the Eastern Star will serve dinner.

JAMES AIKEN, former Leetonia resident, appeared as baritone soloist in a recent choir concert presented by the Great Falls Symphony of Montana assisted by the Instrumental Ensemble of the Great Falls Symphony Orchestra.

Aiken, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aiken of Ridge St., is a captain in the Montana Air Guard and is stationed at Malmstrom Air Force Base near Great Falls. Mr. and Mrs. James Leonard of Columbiana visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Leonard, Sr.

SEVEN TABLES of "500" were in play at the benefit card party sponsored by the Rebekah Lodge Saturday. Prizes for high honors went to Mrs. Vernie Ready and Miss Mabel Middleton. Special awards went to Mrs. Ruby Johnson of Salem and Vernon Walters of Leetonia. Mrs. Elmer Kliner served lunch.

The next benefit will be Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Holt and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stelts attended the wedding of Miss Marjorie Rummel and Gary Te-

Winkle in the the Ontario Methodist Church in Mansfield Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rummel of Mansfield, former Leetonia residents.

Albert Brooks, 45, of RD 5, Lisbon was fined $100 and costs plus three days in jail by Mayor Ralph Kennedy, for operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated. The arrest was made by Patrolman Frank Dominic.

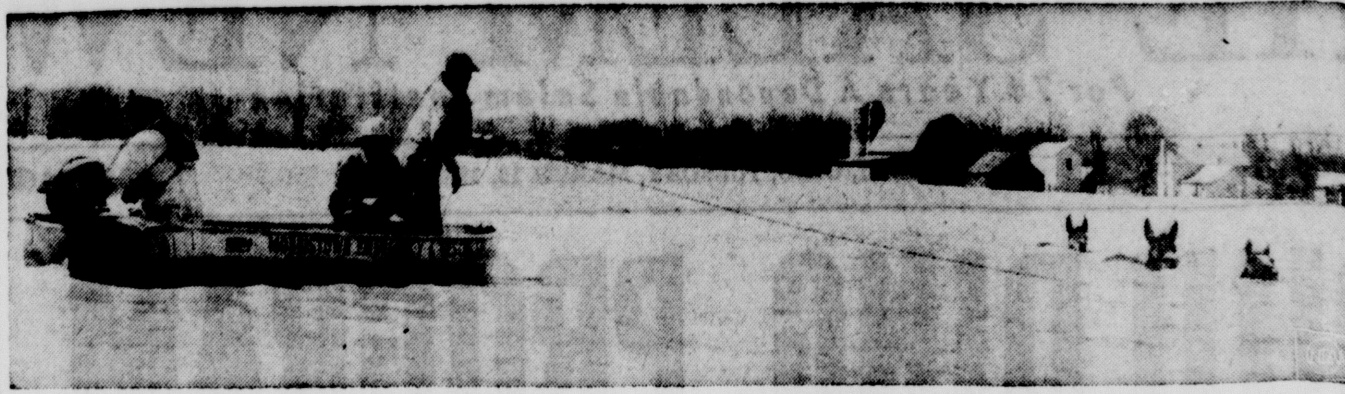

Tavern Owner Cited By Juvenile Officer

LISBON — George Krulik, owner of the West Point Tavern, was cited to appear March 28 at 2 p.m. before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin on a charge of selling beer to an East Liverpool boy and a Newell, W. Va., girl, both 16 years of age.

The charge was filed by Juvenile Officer James Miller of Sallenville after the two young people identified the owner as the one who served them beer while they were with a 22-year-old East Liverpool man.

WEED SPRAYING PLANNED

Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the Ohio Director of Highways until 10 a.m. April 9 for herbicidal spraying for weed and brush control along state and federal highways in Belmont, Carroll, Columbiana, Harrison, Holmes, Jefferson and Tuscarawas counties. Total mileage is 823.09 miles.

Mrs. Lois Mountz, who has been teaching half days in kindergarten at Reilly School, was named by the Board of Education Monday night to fulfill the duties the rest of the year of Mrs. Olive Risbeck who was granted a leave of absence effective March 1.

Mrs. Risbeck requested leave for health reasons. Her replacement will be paid at the rate of $4,750 a year.

Formal approval was given to the employment of four other persons who have already begun work. Hired were James Gow and George Istvan, assistant half time janitors and Maxine Jackson and Mary Sidinger, cafeteria workers.

Four Rogers, Negley Youths Bound Over

EAST PALESTINE — Four Negley and Rogers area youths were bound over to the April Grand Jury Monday after they pleaded guilty to malicious destruction of property of the Ohio Bell Telephone Company last Saturday evening.

County Judge Herbert Arfman bound over Robert Gorby, 20, and James R. Higgins, 19, both of Negley RD 1 and Richard Riley, 19, and James Banner, 19, both of Rogers RD 1, under $1,000 bonds each. All were released.

The youths admitted to County Deputy Robert Beresford that they broke into telephones at Switzer's Store in Elkton; Kelvington's Service Station in Negley and a public phone in East Liverpool.

The youths got approximately $52 in change, of which $16.20 was returned to the company, the deputy said.

The program will include two games of girls' basketball, demonstrations of tumbling from McKinley School and of physical fitness from Fourth Street School.

The program will conclude with three games of boys' basketball with the highlight the championship match between Fourth Street and Prospect Schools.

Tickets will be available in all schools at a cost of 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

Proceeds will be used to furnish gym equipment and clothing for indigent children and to help defray costs of the operation of the Mickey McGuire program.

Miller is general chairman, assisted by Charles Mattavi, who has charge of ticket sales and promotion, and Fred Cope, in charge of all other details.

Record Palestine Appropriation Okayed by Council

EAST PALESTINE — City Council, convening in City Hall Monday night, passed a 1963 appropriation ordinance calling for the expenditure of $724,860, the largest appropriation in the city's history.

The 1963 appropriation is $109,000 more than last year's, which was approximately $615,000.

Three major areas reflect the proposed increases in spending: Approximately $75,000 will be used in municipal light plant bond retirement and in maintenance of the plant where a $1,000,000 improvement project is underway. A new sewage treatment plant will cost $234,000, and $15,000 in plant bonds are to be retired this year.

Increases given to all city employees beginning Jan. 1 this year amount to an expenditure of about $9,000 over city employees' pay for last year.

City Council also discussed the cleaning of James St. Creek which flows under the Adamson Manufacturing Co. plant on E. Clark St. The company will be asked to clear the 150-foot culvert of mud, branches and other debris in order that a threat of spring flood may be removed.

100 Apply for School Cafeteria Positions

EAST PALESTINE — In regular session at Senior High School Monday night, the Board of Education began screening a list of approximately 100 applicants for school cafeteria positions.

Under a millage approved at election time last fall, four East Palestine schools will open cafeterias this year, perhaps in May. Ten or 12 employees are expected to be hired for the cafeteria positions at the Senior High School, the Junior High School, East North Ave. School and Taggart School.

IN LISBON COURT

LISBON — Two Pennsylvania motorists forfeited bonds Monday when they failed to appear for scheduled hearings in Mayor Dean Stockman's court.

Bertha Trusnovic, 44, of Imperial, left a $15 bond for speeding and Dale H. Dulaney, 42, Amherst, $15 bond for making improper right turn. Both were cited by the State Patrol.

ELECTRICITY Broils Meat Better ... Because It's FLAMELESS

Just like glowing charcoal, flameless electric heat broils with penetrating infrared heat rays. This seals in the juices quickly and keeps them there. Because it's flameless it's the closest thing there is to true charcoal broiling... and you can expect better flavor, better eating when you broil the flameless electric way.

But baking or broiling, frying or boiling, you always get the same cookbook results because there's no guesswork when you cook electrically... you get the same exact heat at the same switch setting every time. Buy an electric range and you'll get these and many more of the extra advantages you get only with flameless electric cooking.

HOW GOOD IS PLYMOUTH'S NEW WARRANTY?

Facts about our 5-year or 50,000-mile warranty*

DOES IT INCLUDE THE COST OF LABOR?

Yes. There is absolutely no charge for labor and parts. For the entire life of the warranty, should any defect in material or workmanship occur on the parts covered by the warranty, it will not cost you one cent to have it corrected.

DOES IT COVER EXPENSIVE PARTS?

Absolutely! It covers the major power train components—the engine block and its internal parts, the automatic transmission and its internal parts, the rear axle—parts that would cost plenty if you had to replace or repair them.

IS IT TRANSFERABLE WHEN YOU TRADE?

Yes. As long as the car has been serviced at reasonable intervals according to the Plymouth-Vaillant Certified Car Care schedules, the warranty can be passed on to the new owner. Think what that will mean to the resale value of your car!

*Your Authorized Plymouth-Vaillant Dealer's Warranty against defects in material and workmanship on 1963 cars has been expanded to include parts replacement or repair, without charge for required parts or labor, for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, on the engine block, head and internal parts; transmission case and internal parts (excluding manual clutch); torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints (excluding dust covers), rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings, provided the vehicle has been serviced at reasonable intervals according to the Plymouth-Vaillant Certified Car Care schedules.

The Doctor Says

By Dr. WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT

Hepatitis Researchers Hunt Vaccine

Until a few years ago, all forms of hepatitis were lumped together and called "jaundice." The cause was poorly understood. We now recognize a form of hepatitis caused by such

Dr. Brandstadt in the number of reported cases of viral hepatitis. The reason for this is interesting, as it parallels the situation that existed in poliomyelitis before there was a polio vaccine.

IN OVERCROWDED areas where sanitation is poor the virus is widely spread. Almost all infants living under these conditions are infected, but they have the disease in a very mild form. Although their infection usually goes unrecognized, it produces in them a lifelong immunity. As sanitation improves, fewer and fewer persons are thus protected in childhood. If exposed to the virus as adults, they get a severe attack of the disease.

In addition to transmission through contaminated water, this disease has been spread by food handlers who are immune carriers, and by oysters taken from polluted beds. At least one epidemic was controlled by a campaign to eradicate cockroaches in a large housing development.

HERE IS ANOTHER hepatitis virus that is transmitted only from the blood of one person to that of another. Immunity to the water-borne virus does not protect against the other. Recognition of this second type of viral hepatitis has caused blood banks to take every precaution not to accept donors who have had jaundice or any form of hepatitis.

The usual symptoms of hepatitis are fever, weakness, and loss of appetite. Although many persons also have yellowing of the skin and the whites of their eyes, well over 60 per cent do not have jaundice.

Unless an alert doctor finds that the liver is enlarged and makes liver tests the sufferer may recover in the belief that he had some form of flu. The severity of the attack depends on the number of the virus, its aggressiveness and the age and general state of health of the victim. Complete recovery may take two or three months.

THERE IS NO MIRACLE drug for hepatitis. Treatment consists of bed rest to allow maximal flow of blood to the liver, and a balanced diet which includes fat. The prevention of hepatitis is best achieved by strict observance of sanitary measures.

Persons who are thrown into close family contact with a member who has hepatitis should be given gamma globulin. This is of no value in treatment, but it provides an effective immunity for about two months. Pregnant women are especially in need of such protection.

The most hopeful aspect of this whole problem is that workers in this field may soon come up with a vaccine that will give a more lasting immunity.

Rep. Byrnes Outlines Plan To Cut Budget

WASHINGTON (AP)—A House Republican has laid down a blueprint for cuts in the Kennedy administration's record budget, beginning with a $3-billion slash in education and other nondefense spending proposals.

"And I don't think that defense is immune, nor is space," Rep. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin, ranking Republican on the tax-writing Ways and Means Committee, said Sunday as he called for holding government spending at current levels.

If it can be done, he said, he would support a tax cut and even go the administration one better—slashing revenues $7.5 billion in the first step by reducing corporate rates 52 to 47 per cent and cutting individual income tax rates across the board by $5 billion.

The Kennedy administration has proposed a $98.8-billion budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1. An $11.9-billion deficit is the official forecast and the President has placed in the congressional hopper a proposed net tax cut of $10.2 billion a year, to take effect in three stages.

The prospect of a large deficit while taxes are being cut has nettled economy-minded Congress members. Some have said they would support a tax reduction if spending is cut at the same time. Administration supporters have called for specifics—or as President Kennedy said recently "We have been generalized enough."

Appearing on a radio-television interview program, Byrnes, chairman of the House Republican Policy Committee, was asked what he would favor cutting now. First, he said, a proposed $1.5-billion increase in nondefense spending should be blocked. Foreign assistance and foreign aid have to be cut back, he said, and aid to colleges and universities should be confined to construction, cutting another $1.5 billion from the administration's education program.

In addition, Byrnes said the budget calls for 46,000 new federal employees, more than are required. But, at the same time, he said Republicans are not suggesting cuts in unemployment compensation and vocational training.

Rotary And Crippled Children

The list is so long that it would take hours of checking to determine the total number of crippled children who have been helped by the Salem Rotary club since the club first started aiding these unfortunate boys and girls some 40 years ago.

The Rotarians "adopted" crippled children as their wards soon after the club was organized in 1921 and in the intervening years has seen to it that youngsters with birth and polio-caused defects were given a fighting chance to overcome their afflictions.

For a number of years, the Rotarians took time from their own business duties to drive these children to Youngstown diagnostic and corrective centers. The work still goes on, although the number of polio victims has been lessened to a great degree because of the Sabin and Salk vaccines, and the need for funds is still evident.

That is why each year at this time Easter Seals are being sold by the club. The amount raised determines pretty well just how much continued assistance can be given to the crippled children. All of the money raised is retained locally. None is shared with a national headquarters, like some charity drives.

The Rotarians' wonderful humanitarian effort deserves the public's praise and support.

No Berlin Wall For Miami

The simplest solution for Miami's problem with Cuban refugees would be to deny sanctuary to those who haven't escaped yet.

If the flow of refugees stopped, Cubans already in this country could be assimilated in due time. If the flow continues, the United States must take care of the Cuban refugees more systematically than it has been doing so far.

It cannot in good conscience make Miami or any other community the goat for its failure to cope with the consequences of its policy of receiving all Cubans fleeing from Fidel Castro's regime.

WHILE Washington is developing a good conscience for dealing with a problem it has neglected, Castro's apparent indifference to the refugee problem from his own point of view will be a matter of curiosity.

When it became evident to the East Germans that they could not permit escapees to flee to West Germany any longer because they were losing their best people, they erected the Berlin Wall and stiffened the border patrols.

Surely it must be evident to the Cubans carrying out Communist plans for a Marxist state that they cannot go on forever losing doctors, lawyers, engineers and Cuba's best-educated people. Up to a point, this had the effect of exile for their most-feared opponents. But beyond this point it must have the effect of exile for their most-needed countrymen.

Surely, Cuba one day will make it harder for Cubans to leave Cuba.

WEST GERMANY made it easy and attractive for East Germans to seek sanctuary.

West Germans received refugees cordially and systematically dispersed them to new homes.

Perhaps the best minds in Washington may have an inspirational mental flash and hire a couple of West Germans to straighten out what Floridians seem to feel has been fouled up in typical government fashion.

If Cubans are going to come here, they must be distributed here in such a way as to keep them from being a problem.

No Co-Existence With Cuba

If it hadn't been for President Charles de Gaulle of France, there would be no parallel situation to show what is about to happen between Red China and Red Russia.

Mao Tse-tung, or Chou En-lai, or whoever is doing the ideological party-lining for Chinese Communists, is about to do a De Gaulle at Russia's expense.

The Russians, like the British, are about to have it spelled out for them that if they want to co-exist with their Chinese brothers in an ideological "common market" they will have to cast off their non-Communist ties.

THEY WILL HAVE to shove Yugoslavia into the cold and make up with Albania. It will have to square its doctrines with in dealings with Europe and the United States.

The Soviet Union will have to give up any notion of living with one foot in Asia and the other foot in the West.

It will have to square its doctrines with those of the defenders of the pure Communist faith in Peiping.

It has been straying from the path of righteousness; its course has been deviationist.

Thoughts like co-existence and gestures like Khrushchev's son-in-law having an audience with Pope John are intolerable in Peiping.

The truth is that while the Chinese Communists have been defending the true faith the Russian Communists have been kiting off in directions that cannot be reconciled with the simon-pures of Peiping.

ALL OF THIS is about to be spelled out for the Russian Communists if they give the Chinese Communists a chance.

It will happen exactly the way it happened when France's De Gaulle had his chance to tell off the British because they had ceased to be true Europeans and become American-oriented.

How can this be said for certain? Because human nature stays the same.

Chinese Communists, resentful of the way they have been kept in the background, are about to make their move against the people who have been keeping them there.

They are about to take leadership away from their closest rival.

There's more health packed in exercise and a good brisk walk than there is in the medicine cabinet.

Letter From Max

By Martin Miller

The news that geese are displacing men in weeding cotton fields in the South is another thing you can worry about when you get to the moon, after you have tamed De Gaulle.

We have been concerned about the grand and glorious future with its computers and automation. We have been so tied up trying to move forward we have neglected our rear. The animal kingdom is rising to overthrow us.

Up until now I have always liked the comment of old Satchel Page, the ageless baseball pitcher, who said, "Never look back. Something might be gaining on you."

We took him too literally. It is time we looked back because something really is gaining on us—geese.

The newspaper story telling about the geese weeding cotton fields quoted a farmer who said he saved $16 an acre by using geese instead of imported Mexican labor.

Besides that, the geese can be sold for foot at the end of a season, although some farmers keep the geese because they live up to 25 years.

We have only ourselves to blame for this sudden surge of geese into the labor market. Hindsight shows there were many indications it might happen.

Man was preceded into space by dogs, mice, monkeys and such lower forms of life as moss.

Mold produces our life-saving penicillin. The dogs of the K Corps did yeoman service in the last year.

Ferrets are so efficient in hunting rabbits we had to ban them.

The bloodthirsty mongoose also is outlawed. Thirty or forty years ago, columnist Arthur Brisbane used to say that if 10,000 chimpanzees were put to work punching typewriters the mathematical probabilities were that eventually they would reproduce all the works of Shakespeare. Everyone laughed.

Now we have geese taking men's jobs and it isn't funny.

If and when we ever reach the true push-button age, there is no reason a dog or goose couldn't be trained to push the buttons. We have been so busy taking the kinks out of machines that any day now they can be operated by dumb animals. What will you and I do then, Twill?

A little-known attempt to use animal life during the last war was the training of pigeons to peck instruments in a missile to keep it on target. A pigeon was conditioned to peck a certain color and when this color showed the missile was off course the pigeon pecked the colored button to return the missile to its course.

This sounds like a dandy idea but apparently it never got off the ground. Better we should steal homing pigeons from a hostile country and let them lead our missiles to the country. But this would raise the question of whether pigeon lofts are legitimate targets.

It is Arthur Brisbane's chimpanzees that we typewriter jockeys should look out for. I gotta sign off now; a hairy hand is tapping my shoulder.

Faithfully yours,
MAX

By DAVID LAWRENCE

It may seem unusual for a news correspondent to suggest that any hot news ever should be suppressed, but the best interests of the country are served when the government refrains from publicly telling a potential enemy that it is afraid of him.

A glaring example of news that never should have been published is the testimony of Edwin M. Martin, assistant secretary of state for inter-American affairs, who told a House Foreign Affairs subcommittee that the United States discontinued its blockade of Cuba last autumn for fear that it might cause Russia to go to war.

Mr. Martin, who is accompanying President Kennedy this week on his trip to Central America, is high up in the councils of the government. His whole testimony was given in secret during the last four weeks, and it was released on March 14.

Several sections were deleted

for security reasons, but it is a mystery why the White House or the State Department let the following statement by Mr. Martin be made public for Russian eyes to read:

"As far as taking vigorous action and continuing it, last fall when we had political support, which we certainly had, as you indicated, it was our judgment at the time, and it was a matter which was considered and discussed very carefully, that we had this support on the part of the Europeans and all of Latin America for the purpose of removing the offensive weapons from Cuba under Soviet control.

"IF WE HAD continued the quarantine to the point of bringing down the regime within Cuba, which is what would have been necessary to accomplish anything significant further, then we would have lost some of this support—a considerable amount of it—and more importantly, we would have raised the confrontation with the Soviets to a level which might well have become intolerable for them, not only from the standpoint of Soviet prestige and position, but also of the Soviet position vis-a-vis the Chinese Communists, which keeps them under certain kinds of pressure to be at least as vigorous in the defense of Communist regimes as they were.

"The risk of nuclear war would have been accelerated very greatly if we had continued the quarantine to this final purpose."

It so happens that Secretary of State Rusk only a few days ago made an excellent statement describing the firmness of American policy in relation to any future buildup by the Soviets in Cuba or their attempts to subvert Latin-American countries by force or arms or otherwise. But the full effect of Mr. Rusk's utterance has been diluted now by the publication of the testimony given by Mr. Martin.

To say that the risk of nuclear war would have been "accelerated very greatly" if the United States had continued its blockade of Cuba last autumn is but another way of saying that the United States gave up its "quarantine" without actually achieving its full objectives, because the American government was, in effect, afraid that it might displease or offend the Soviets.

No weight seems to have been given to the American side of the case and the right of this country to be offended or aggravated by a palpable act of aggression by the Soviets just 90 miles away from our shores.

Unfortunately, moreover, this delicate situation persists today because the United States did not insist upon on-site inspection and hence has not been able to verify absolutely whether all the weapons capable of offensive use were withdrawn.

A debate is going on as to how many Soviet troops are actually being pulled out of Cuba, and yet it is five months now since the United States learned positively that an offensive military base had been set up by the Soviets in Cuba.

An excessive regard here for Soviet sensitivity has been noted recently, but no such clear expression of American fears has been disclosed as is contained in the testimony of Mr. Martin.

IT MAY WELL BE ASKED now whether the Soviets really believe that the United States will actually stand up in a crisis. The testimony by Mr. Martin raises the question as to how far the American government was really prepared to go last autumn. Such an official statement of American fears and qualms as this testimony reveals never should have been released for publication.

Perhaps the most significant statement of what American policy ought to be recently was made by James A. Farley, who served as postmaster general in the Roosevelt administration. In a speech in Chicago a few days ago, he defined a resolute policy very succinctly. He said:

"I expect to be called an alarmist and even a warmonger. My answer is to point to the map. Each time that we seek to disengage them (the Communists) they confront us nearer home. Today they are on our front doorstep.

"In my opinion that menace must be removed, to remove it, World War III may have to be risked—and, for myself, I am prepared to take that risk. But that decision is not mine. It rests with the President of the United States."

When a prominent Democrat like Mr. Farley—a former chairman of the Democratic National Committee—urges a Democratic President to adopt a resolute policy, it is an indication that Americans generally are not influenced by the speculative and theoretical debate about whether a firm course will lead to war.

The experience of the 1930s proves that an appeasement policy and a lack of firmness is the surest way to war. A potential enemy misconstrues hesitancy for weakness and then, when he takes a chance, believing that his aggression will not be repelled, war comes anyway.

"I Was Only Kidding When I Said 'Ask Not What the Peace Corps Can Do For You — Ask What You Can Do For the Peace Corps'..."

Hoffa's Coffers Overflowing

By VICTOR RIESEL

Let it not be said that James Riddle Hoffa is not a civic minded gent. Under his mobile leadership the Teamsters donated all of $4,620.83 to "public causes."

This still left him considerable elbowing room—and a comfortable balance in his brotherhood's treasury. It can be revealed that Hoffa's union coffers held assets of $40,294,040.55 as of the year's end. This should give the Teamsters leaders a sense of security. The constitution gives them the right to spend as they choose in defense of themselves if they feel persecuted.

Th House of Hoffa is indeed a mighty financial institution. In operating expenses the Teamsters spent the awesome sum of $16,625,044.40 in '62. It could well afford this "operating expense."

For it took in $17,280,311.40 in the fiscal period — over $16 million of which was the membership's dues.

There now can be no doubt about the Teamsters future solvency. Its dues income in '62, because of newly increased rates, was $9,255,736.33 more than in the previous year.

EASILY THE MOST fascinating expenditure of some of this money was $912,240.76 for legal fees and expenses. Thus, if the brotherhood president had a sense of humor, he could boast that his is the only union with a private bar association attached.

Hard currency is the $3,013,827.46 for "organizing campaign expenses." Like any good financial house, the Teamsters believe in diversifying. They have more than trucks on their mind.

In my travels crisscrossing the United States, I have run into a Teamster local which has unionized the technical workers at a radio station. The brotherhood has tried to unionize theaters in Denver. Its organizers are going after inland waterways transportation, boat and barge pilots and captains, airline crews, city police, plant guards, municipally-run communications systems, defense installations, white-collar workers.

The brotherhood also has given financial comfort to nonferrous metal miners and flight engineers.

So intensely does Hoffa personally push these campaigns, his own palace guard simply can't keep pace with him, and

LITTLE LIZ

Everyone's greatest possession is the 24 hours just ahead of him.

The Bitter Half

Dear Ann: My husband and I have been married six years. We drive a nice car and have a pleasant apartment. George makes a good salary and so do I.

I turn my check over to George every week. He handles all the money and pays all the bills. He gives me $5 a week for bus fare and lunches. We are in debt about $2,000 but all our payments are frequently has to operate in shifts.

LATELY HE APPEARS devoted to a mass drive in the nation's vast communications systems. It has not been generally reported, but his next objective is the huge New York Telephone Co. plants. They employ some 24,000 men and women.

This is a different group than the 17,000 Western Electric installers the Teamsters wooed unsuccessfully recently. Hoffa still is taking a pass at the latter, though he lost his first round in that fight.

Right now he is spending considerable sums on an automated drive on the big telephone company. He has set up a headquarters in the heart of New York City to go after the big complement, though they already are unionized by the Communications Workers of America, led by Joseph Beirne.

All this takes imagery. So, back on the financial statement we find the expenditure of $221,623.56 for public relations. There is an additional item of $1,009, 969.85 for the publication of the union's magazine, The International Teamster. That should make for a lot of imagery.

Naturally it takes quite a force to run such a vast operation.

SALARIES for officers, organizers, and auditors came to $881,131.78 for the year. Naturally you spend money in such responsible positions. And they did spend. These expenses came to $547,066.96 — or over $10,000 a week.

In these salaries are such items as $1,000 a month to vice presidents for being vice presidents. They draw this money in addition to what they draw from their local unions and joint boards. You can make a living from this.

There is another intriguing item which proves what a helping hand the international headquarters gives its affiliates. This totals $3,572,305. It is for "donations to subordinate organizations."

In this statement there is no breakdown of this figure. But it all proves what I report above. The donation of over $4,000 for public causes does not strain the House of Hoffa.

Dear Ann Landers: A short time ago a girl in the local high school had a baby out of wedlock. She was not wild or promiscuous. It was just a case of going too steadily and too seriously with the same boy.

This unfortunate girl has a younger sister who is a close friend of my daughter. They belong to the same youth group. The group is having a dance in April and the girls must ask the boys.

The sister invited two boys and they both turned her down. They told her candidly they had nothing against her but their parents forbade them to go with her because of what happened to her sister.

The poor girl is heart sick. She has even considered quitting school. Do you see any justification whatever for the actions of the parents? I'm too involved to evaluate the situation properly. Please comment. — MRS. J. R.

Dear Mrs. J. R.: No justification whatsoever. The action of these parents is shocking.

To punish an innocent girl for something her sister did is not only cruel but senseless. If this is the standard of justice the parents are setting for their sons I feel sorry for all of them.

Dear Mrs. Scrooge: Five dollars a week is not enough for car fare and a decent lunch. And what happens if you tear a pair of hose?

Cash your own check and keep 25 per cent of it to do with as you please.

An instead of steaming silently why don't you replace the marshmallows in your spine with a little sterner stuff and discuss this openly with your husband? He is taking advantage of his wife's stupidity.

A Dog's Life

Dear Ann: For the last 10 years my husband and I have taken our vacation in April. We've always gone to visit my parents who live in Vermont.

This year we are faced with a serious problem which involves our German shepherd who is just like a child to us. She is very gentle if people are nice to him. We have always taken him with us when we visited the folks.

For the last couple of years we've had a little problem because mom's housekeeper, Maggie, does not like her. Maggie said she bit her but there were only nip-marks on her leg and I would hardly consider it a bite. I'm sure Maggie must have kicked her or done something mean to her because he is very sweet.

Anyway, Mother wrote and said we are not to bring her with us this time. I feel it's very selfish of her to put her housekeeper's wishes before our own.

Please tell me what we should do. — R.G.

Dear R. G.: Your mother told you what to do. Leave her home.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Salem News, enclosing a stamp, self-addressed envelope.

History Today

Today is Tuesday, March 19, the 78th day of 1963. There are 287 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this day in 1690, the General Court of Massachusetts issued a call for the first Congress of the American Colonies. It was proposed that the New England colonies unite with New York, New Jersey, Maryland and Virginia in battling the French and Indians.

On this day: In 1793, the French Convention decreed that every person accused of participating in a counter-revolution was an outlaw.

In 1860, American politician and statesman William Jennings Bryan was born at Salem Ill.

In 1920, the United States Senate rejected the Versailles peace treaty stemming from World War I.

Today's birthdays: Stage designer Jo Mielziner and the chief justice of the United States, Earl Warren, are 62.

Be silent always when you doubt your sense—Alexander Pope.

Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: I am sure Maggie must have kicked her or done something mean to her because he is very sweet.

Anyway, Mother wrote and said we are not to bring her with us this time. I feel it's very selfish of her to put her housekeeper's wishes before our own.

Please tell me what we should do. — R.G.

Dear R. G.: Your mother told you what to do. Leave her home.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Salem News, enclosing a stamp, self-addressed envelope.

Thoughts

My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and come to their end without hope.—Job 7:6.

Enjoy the blessings of this day if God sends them; and the evils bear patiently and sweetly. For this day only is ours; we are dead to yesterday, and we are not born to tomorrow.—Jeremy Taylor.

Butler Twp. Trustees Okay Road Improvement Program

About eight and one-half miles of Butler Township roads were approved for improvement in October at a meeting of the trustees Monday.

Five sections of road will be surface-treated and one will be oil-treated under the cooperative plan between the townships and the county.

Roads to be surface-treated are the Barbershop Rd. 1.6 miles; Cider Mill Rd. 0.51 miles; Seva-keen County Club Rd., 1.1 miles; Winona-Bridgewater Rd., four miles; road south of Winona, one mile. Two-tenths of a mile of the Woodsdale Rd. will be oil-treated as a preliminary to eventual black-topping.

The plan came on the heels of a conference of trustees Albert Althouse and William Hoopes last Friday with Columbiana County Engineer Charles Snyder.

Under the setup Butler township will pay for the 1,225 tons of slag at an estimated cost of $3,920. The county will pay for the bituminous material at a cost of $5,520 and provide labor and the equipment. The aid to townships by the Columbiana County Board of Commissioners is based on $100 for each mile of road in the township.

Early spring work on township roads was also discussed including the filling of holes, patching, leveling, applying slag and other general maintenance work. Some of this work is already in progress since the weather turned favorable.

The trustees also agreed to borrow $3,000 against expected income from real estate taxes to be distributed April 15. The distribution is later this year due to the recent tax reappraisal.

Bill totaling $1,528.72 were approved for payment.

Liverpool Man Bound Over For Larceny

LISBON — An East Liverpool man was bound over to the grand jury Monday by County Judge James L. MacDonald for grand larceny.

Clayton Hitchcock pleaded not guilty to stealing tools valued at over $100 from the car of Francis Ruhl, Lisbon RD 4, while it was parked in Wellsville Nov. 28, 1962.

Chief John Hephner of Wellsville, who filed the charges, said the tools were recovered the next day in Stratton.

Bond was set at $500, and Hitchcock is confined to the county jail in lieu of bond.

Hints From Heloise

By HELOISE CRUSE

DEAR HELOISE: Rather than line your cutlery drawers with paper that shows every moisture or grease stain, try a dish towel folded to fit. Stains will be absorbed by the towel which can be shaken or washed when soiled. Terry cloth is good to use. Best of all it keeps things from sliding all over the drawer.

MRS. T. E. DAVIS.

DEAR HELOISE: I clean my can opener by putting it in an aluminum pan of warm water with a teaspoon of cream of tartar and boil for 20 minutes. This way I kill two birds with one stone by using an aluminum pan which has turned black. It comes out looking new.

I also use my baby stroller to help ease the job of hanging out clothes. It's wonderful as it scoots along fast. It's much handier than a child's wagon.

DEAR HELOISE: Perhaps the ladies who do not want to mar their table tops with food choppers can do what I do:

I open my ironing board and attach my food chopper to it. It works just fine.

Mrs. Robert A. Williams of Roller Coaster Road was elected president of McKinley School Parent-Teacher Association at the combined P. T. A. meeting of Lincoln and McKinley Schools Monday evening.

Others elected to serve with her for the 1963-64 school year are Mrs. Roger James, first vice president; Mrs. Raymond Moore, second vice president; Mrs. John Rodu, secretary; Mrs. Charles Homan, treasurer.

Mrs. Glen Ward, president, presided at the business meeting, which was opened with devotions led by Mrs. Bruce Workman.

Recognition was given to the Camp Fire Girls present.

Mrs. William Brown had charge of the program and introduced Mrs. Vernon Duke, music supervisor; Mrs. Leo Hochman, art supervisor; Mrs. Kenneth Woods, hearing and speech therapist, who presented a panel discussion on "Special Teaching in Lisbon Schools".

Oliver Payne, superintendent of schools, spoke on the school levy to be voted on at the May primaries and stressed the need for its passage.

The next combined meeting will be April 8 at the Lincoln School. New officers will be installed at the May meeting of the McKinley P. T. A. Miss Della Wetzel, Mrs. Raymond Weaver and Mrs. Richard Bowling were members of the nominations committee.

CANASTA CLUB MEMBERS were luncheon guests of Mrs. Eleanor Hartman of E. Lincoln Way Saturday evening.

Hostess on March 30 will be Mrs. Bessie Cullison of W. Washington St.

Mrs. Agnes Wilson of Girard, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Helen O'Brien of E. Lincoln Way, the past week, returned home Sunday.

Guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Babb of N. Jefferson St. last Saturday, was his sister, Mrs. Jeannette Campbell of Sebring.

How careful investors use our services

Our customers call on us to get facts on companies they are interested in — sales, company growth, profit history, dividend records.

Many careful investors use us to help plan their investment goals—whether to invest in stocks with the aim of a second income; or in stocks that we think have growth possibilities; or in high quality bonds for the greater stability of principal and income they usually provide.

Let us give you information about securities that might fit the goals you have decided on. Then, equipped with facts, you can start making decisions.

DEFENDS SPACE—James E. Webb, head of National Aeronautics and Space Administration, warned the House Space Committee not to cut his agency's $5.7-billion budget in an attempt to reduce government spending to provide for a tax cut. Webb said he saw no economy in letting Russia get ahead in space.

Loop-hole In Ohio's Liquor Business Has Been Blocked

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A loop-hole in Ohio's liquor business, which cost the state an estimated $623,000 during a recent 18-month period, has been blocked.

State Liquor Director Donald D. Cook says the long-standing practice of issuing consent papers to Ohioans wishing to bring back liquor from foreign countries has been discontinued.

He said the action was taken primarily to block import firms who continually remind Ohioans that, with a consent from the state they may bring in foreign liquor and save considerable money on the state mark-up.

"We have no objection to a person bringing in a bottle but it was the commercial competition that was costing the state," Cook explained.

He said a survey from June 1961 to December 1962 showed the Liquor Department issued 21,591 consents to bring in liquor and the by-passing of the Ohio mark-up cost the state the estimated $623,000.

Cook said 16 countries have been notified by his department of the discontinuance of consent papers. The new policy went into effect Feb. 28, however, March 22 is the final cutoff date, set to clear up pending consent requests.

"Our survey showed most of the brands imported from foreign countries were sold in state stores," Cook said. "So it wasn't a matter of getting a brand not sold. It was merely avoiding the state mark-up."

The director pointed out that any Ohioan may buy a brand not stocked in the state stores by contacting the Liquor Department. The only requirement is that the purchase be of one case or more.

It was emphasized that no regulations exist involving interstate sale of liquor except that it cannot be for resale in Ohio.

Ohio law leaves to the Liquor Department the discretion of issuing the consents. "The department now is using its prerogative," Cook asserted.

You Can Have 'Em

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things we could do without:

Gold identity tags for dogs that have everything. Oldtimers who can remember a worse winter than the one just ending. Lipstick so pale it makes teen-age girls look like zombies.

People who, when you tell them your troubles, just reply, "Well, that's life for you." The commercial spellers on television who whisper their message—for some reason they are more annoying than those who shout. Folks who think it's cute to send a city child a small live bunny for Easter.

Hatchback girls who drop our hat to the floor when we put down 15 cents because we don't have a quarter change in our pocket. Telephones that ring just as we reach the punchline in a joke we're telling the boss.

Hairdos that make a woman look like she'd been frightened out of her wits—or that cause lost bees to confuse it with their home hive. Pigeons that make love outside a window where a middle-aged man is trying to do his work. Office straw bosses who scribble endless suggestions to others just because somebody gave them a stack of free memo pads.

Professional liberals who refer to the unfortunates of this world as "the little people." Bartenders who sprinkle red pepper on their bowl of cheese wafers so you'll buy more drinks to soothe your burning palate. After dinner speakers who speak so long you begin to yearn for breakfast.

Any meal cooked in a backyard between May and November. Wives who can fix with a hairpin a broken vacuum cleaner we've tinkered over for hours with pliers, monkey wrench and crowbar. Drugstore cowboys who wear big-belted military raincoats to make them look more impressively masculine.

Men's hats that have brims so narrow they look as if they'd been gnawed away by hungry mice. Truckdrivers who honk their horns just to see the startled pedestrians jump. Rains that fall only on the days you put on a freshly pressed suit.

From all these, O Lord, deliver us, amen.

FALSE TEETH

That Loosen

Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.

26 Home Runs Are Belted In Exhibition Contests

Orsino Clouts 3 For Orioles
Cubs Belt 4, But Lose To Cleveland

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ
Associated Press Sports Writer
It's getting to be that time of the baseball spring training season when the batters start catching up with the pitchers and begin to find that home run range.

The sluggers went on a home run barrage in the 10 major league exhibition games along the grapefruit and cactus circuit Monday, accounting for 26 round-trippers.

Catcher Johnny Orsino of Baltimore set the pace with three homers as the unbeaten Orioles rang up their ninth straight victory in nipping the Cincinnati Reds 4-3 in Tampa. Orsino, a husky right-handed swinger, drove in all the Birds' runs.

Colts Outslug Giants 14-5
Six circuit clouts were struck in the Houston-San Francisco slugfest at Phoenix, Ariz., with the Colts whipping the Giants 14-5 with 5 runs in the eighth inning and 7 in the ninth. Jim Wynn, Ellis Burton and George Williams clubbed home runs for Houston while Ed Bailey laced two and Jose Cardenal one for the Giants.

The Chicago Cubs hit four homers—including a pair by Nelson Mathews—but dropped their eighth game in 10 outings as the Cleveland Indians prevailed 16-6 at Nogales, Ariz. Ron Santo and Billy Williams were the other Chicago distance swingers. Tito Francona homered for the Indians who slammed out 15 or more hits for the third game in a row.

Tigers Romp 8-5
Rocky Colavito, Norm Cash and Gus Triandos clicked for round-trippers in the Detroit Tigers' 8-5 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals at Lakeland, Fla. The Bengals annexed their fourth straight, giving Bob Anderson his third win of the spring.

Deacon Jones' home run in the sixth inning off Sandy Koufax enabled the Chicago White Sox to edge the Los Angeles Dodgers 5-4 at Sarasota, Fla. It was the only earned run off the hard-throwing southpaw, who struck out 13 batters — including the last five he faced—in a seven-inning stint. Ron Fairly walloped a homer for the Dodgers.

Phillies Triumph 6-5
Cookie Rojas' homer with two out in the 13th inning off Bill Pleis gave the Philadelphia Phillies a 6-5 squeaker over the Minnesota Twins at Orlando, Fla. Bob Allison had a three-run homer for the Twins, his third of the citrus campaign.

Lee Thomas' three-run home run powered the Los Angeles Angels to a 7-1 conquest over Boston at Palm Springs, Calif. Frank Malone's smash over the wall accounted for the lone Red Sox run off Dean Chance, who worked six innings for the Angels.

The Kansas City A's and the Pittsburgh Pirates played a 4-4 tie that was called at the end of 12 innings because of darkness at Fort Myers, Fla. Julio Gotay hit the game's only home run for the Buccaneers.

Two sparkling 1-0 pitching duels offset the home run outburst. The New York Mets blanked the New York Yankees 1-0 at St. Petersburg, Fla., as Roger Craig and Al Jackson combined for a five-hitter. Larry Burright singled home the winning run in the seventh inning. The Yanks' Ralph Terry held the Mets scoreless in hurling the first six innings.

Washington catcher Ken Retzer's error on a throw to the plate in the 11th inning provided the Milwaukee Braves with an unearned run and a 1-0 verdict over the Senators at West Palm Beach, Fla. Lou Burdette, Tony Cloninger and Hank Fischer scattered five hits in blanking the Nats.

8 Schools Enter Tech Cage Tourney

Eight teams will compete in the first annual Salem Technology School Invitational Basketball Tournament at Junior High School gymnasium March 29-30.

Tickets for the event will go on sale at Fishers News Agency and Heddleston's Pharmacy for 75 cents. The cutat will entitle each fan to attend all nine scheduled contests.

Teams entered the event include Canton, Ashtabula, Cleveland, Willoughby, Mansfield, Springfield and Lorain.

Butts, Bryant Deny Football Fix Charges Made By Post

ATLANTA (AP)—The Saturday Evening Post has been asked to retract an article accusing Wallace Butts and Alabama Coach Paul Bryant of collusion to rig the Alabama-Georgia football game last fall.

The move is necessary under Georgia law, to enable a plaintiff to recover punitive damages if a libel suit is filed and won in court.

Both Butts, former athletic director at the University of Georgia, and Bryant have denied the charges. Butts said he intends to file a libel suit.

Bryant has a $50,000 libel suit pending against the Post in connection with another article about football brutality.

The request for a retraction was made Monday in a telegram to Curtis Publishing Co., Philadelphia, from Butts' attorney, William Schroder.

Georgia Atty. Gen. Eugene Cook began an investigation Monday and said he may interview Alabama football players. He had not decided whether Georgia players would be interviewed.

Cook said Butts and Bryant both will be questioned, as will Georgia Coach Johnny Griffith; Dr. O. C. Aderhold, president of the University of Georgia, and the writer of the Post article, Frank Graham Jr., a free-lance writer.

The state investigation was ordered by Gov. Carl E. Sanders after the Post charged that Butts gave Bryant detailed information about Georgia's team eight days before the game, which Alabama won 35-0.

George Burnett, an Atlanta insurance salesman, was quoted in the magazine story as saying that he overheard a telephone conversation between Butts and Bryant.

Burnett said in a statement Monday that "an impulsive desire that the truth be known" led him to provide the Post with the story.

Church Cage League
A total of 15 games were played and three forfeits were awarded in the Church Basketball program last Saturday.

In Class D action at Junior High School gymnasium, Emmanuel Lutheran won over Baptist 69-25, St. Paul's over First Christian B 36-11 and First Friends over First Christian 65-17. Calvary Baptist and First Christian A were awarded forfeits over Trinity Lutheran and Presbyterian, respectively.

Emmanuel Lutheran nipped Methodist 16-15 and Presbyterian was awarded a forfeit over Trinity Lutheran in the Class E division at Junior High gymnasium.

In Class F action it was First Christian A over First Christian B 20-18, Presbyterian A over Presbyterian B 18-6, St. Paul's A over St. Paul's B 23-17, Methodist A over First Friends 20-15, Emmanuel Lutheran over Trinity Lutheran 22-17 and Methodist B over Methodist C 43-4.

In Class C competition it was Presbyterian over Assembly of God 45-23, Baptist over Trinity Lutheran 73-35, Emmanuel Lutheran over Methodist B 66-44, St. Paul's B over First Friends 47-24, and St. Paul's A over Methodist A 43-40.

Brintzenhoff connected on 18 field goal attempts and five free throws. Don Secrest chipped in with 18 for the losers. Ken McLemore chalked up 30 markers for the winners. Chuck Wilson had 23, Lory Pelly 14, Ed Votaw 13 and Wayne Harris 11.

Old Dutch and First National Bank are now deadlocked for first place in the standings with 7-1 records. Fad Music is 6-2 and Salem Tech 3-5.

Fad Music took a 17-16 lead in the first period, but the winners retaliated to take a 34-30 margin at intermission and a 54-40 lead at the end of the third session.

Ed Daugherty took scoring honors for the winners with 27 points. Clyde Schoff netted 17 and John Sturgeon and Jerry Schaffer had 14 markers apiece.

The Bankers took a 14-3 lead in the initial period, but the schoolmen retaliated to tie the score 30-30 at half time. The winners spurred in the third canto to take a 52-43 lead.

Frank Shagnot led the winners with 24 points. Dick Youngpeter connected for 20, Sonny Bowman netted 18 and Bob Stallsmith chalked up 16. Arvi Breniser paced the losers with 21 markers. Jan Lendak swished the nets for 19.

NCAA Cage Finals On TV Saturday

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The finale of the National Collegiate Basketball championship tournament Saturday night will be telecast nationally for the first time since 1954, the NCAA disclosed today.

A spokesman said Sports Network Inc., an independent company which bought package telecast rights for the 1963 tournament, expects up to 140 television outlets to carry the game, which begins at 9:35 p.m. EST.

"More than 100 stations already have signed up and we're told the figure could reach 140," the spokesman said. "Sports network estimates that the telecast will be available to a least 90 per cent of the nation's viewing audience."

The nation's 1-2-3 teams—Cincinnati, Duke, and Chicago Loyola—along with Oregon State have advanced to the national semifinals and finals, which begin at massive Freedom Hall here Friday night.

The semifinals, matching Duke against Chicago Loyola and Cincinnati, the two-time defending champion, against Oregon State, will be telecast by Sports Network on a regional basis.

The major television networks have been interested in televising the NCAA final nationally for several years but balked because the NCAA's insistence on playing the game at night meant the network would have to pre-empt time usually occupied by several of its high-budget Saturday night shows.

Telecasts each year have been on a regional basis. Under the package plan this year, Sports Network handled the NCAA regional tourney telecasts at College Park, Md., East Lansing, Mich., Lawrence, Kan., and Provo, Utah.

DETROIT IS CHOSEN U.S. CITY TO HOLD '68 OLYMPIC GAMES
By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The city of Detroit has won the opening skirmish but may lose the battle in its bid to hold the 1968 Olympic Games.

Reaffirmed by the U.S. Olympic Committee as the American city most qualified to make the pitch, the world's motor capital was not overly optimistic over its chances of selling itself to the International Olympic Committee.

The Detroit delegation, headed by Gov. George Romney of Michigan and Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh, was elated when the city was chosen over four others Monday by the USOC board of directors, but the spearhead of the drive added a sobering note.

"We will be definite underdogs before the IOC next October," said Fred C. Matthei, Sr., chairman of the Detroit Olympic Committee. "It's no secret that the IOC is heavily European flavored. Also, our cause has been hurt by our internal battles — first, the AAU-NCAA power war and then this fight between Los Angeles and Detroit for the site."

The IOC is expected to pick the 1968 Olympic site at its meeting in Nairobi, Kenya, next October.

With 40 board members voting, 32 chose Detroit, 4 voted for Los Angeles, 2 for Portland and 1 each for San Francisco and Philadelphia. A plurality of 21 votes was all that was needed.

Detroit announced plans for a new, 3-tier stadium, seating 110,000, to be built on the State Fair Grounds, and for an Olympic Village, accommodating 9,000, at Wayne State College.

Sixty pacers raced a mile in two minutes or less in 1962. Thirteen trotters accomplished the feat.

Hanoverton Eastern Stars Celebrate Friendship Night

HANOVERTON — Friendship Night was observed when Pleasant Valley Chapter, Order of Eastern Star met Thursday. Members of Betsy Ross Chapter of Salineville were guests. A total of 115 members and guests were in attendance. Mrs. Sue Cunningham and George Goppert, worthy matron and worthy patron of guest chapter, were recognized along with respected matron and patron of Homewood chapter, Gertrude and Gordon Devall.

Grand Masters were given recognition. Mrs. Irene Paisley and Bruce Pelley presided for routine opening and business.

A reminiscing period was held of the institution of Betsy Ross chapter by Pleasant Valley 41 years ago. A covershiff dinner preceded the meeting. St. Patrick's Day decor was carried out in table decorations.

LADIES AUXILIARY of the American Legion Post met at the home of Mrs. Harry Wickersham Tuesday. Mrs. Clifford Sloss presided. A vote was taken to support the Red Cross and to donate toward the purchasing of candy for the Children's Home at Xenia.

It was announced that towels and toilet articles are needed for veterans' hospitals. Mrs. Clara Church spoke about Civil Defense. The April 9 meeting will be held at the Post Home.

Twenty-five members and guests were in attendance when the Town and Country Garden club met at the Presbyterian Church Tuesday. The devotional period was conducted by Mrs. Camille Kelton, using "Love" as her theme. April 9 meeting will mark the first anniversary of the club and each member is to invite a guest. There will be a display of dried flowers in charge of Mrs. Mary Russell.

Ted Brantingham of Winona showed slides in keeping with landscaping.

Mrs. Helen Lindesmith has returned home after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Mary Lehman of Cleveland.

Deaths and Funerals

Miss Louise Goshen

Miss Louise Goshen, 93, of 531 E. School St. died of complications at Salem Central Clinic at 10 p.m. Monday following a two-week illness.

Born Nov. 13, 1869, in Oden, Ill., she was the daughter of Leonidas and Martha Wilkins Goshen. She was a member of the First Methodist Church and a former member of the Quota Club. Last employed as a secretary at the National Sanitary Company, she retired in 1940. She spent most of her life in Salem.

Surviving are one sister, Mrs. Mabel Hiddleston, with whom she made her home; two nieces, Mrs. Janice H. Evans of the home and Mrs. Louise H. Cowan of Cleveland, and one nephew, Frederick B. Goshen of Rocky River. Three brothers preceded her in death.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Arbaugh-Pearce Funeral Home, with Rev. William S. Longworth officiating. Burial will be in Grandview Cemetery.

There will be no calling hours.

J. Oral Hoopes

ADAIR — J. Oral Hoopes, 74, a retired farmer, died at 8 a.m. today of cancer at his home on Route 172, the Alexander-New Garden Road, following an illness of four years.

Mr. Hoopes was born in Butler Township, Columbiana County, Sept. 24, 1888, a son of the late James and Alpharetta Windle Hoopes. He moved to Adair two years ago, and was a member of the Friends Church of Winona and Butler Grange.

He leaves his wife, Florence Humphrey Hoopes, and two nieces, Mrs. Marie Althouse of Salem and Mrs. Gladys Zepernick of Whittier, Calif. Two children preceded him in death.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at the Maple Funeral Home in Kensington where friends may call Thursday evening. Burial will be in Woodside Cemetery, near Guilford.

Rev. Frank Tully will officiate at funeral services.

Ortha (Red) Garlock

Ortha (Red) V. Garlock, 53, of 990 E. 6th St., was pronounced dead of a coronary thrombosis on arrival at the Central Clinic Hospital at 6:45 p.m. Monday.

Born at Indianapolis Feb. 22, 1910, the son of Frederick and Florence Potts Garlock, he was employed by the Mullins Manufacturing Corp. He was a member of the First Christian Church, the American Rose Society of Columbiana and the Mullins Foreman Club.

Mr. Garlock is survived by his wife, Martha McCartney Garlock, whom he married March 17, 1945; a daughter, Mrs. Jean Kaufman of Salem; three sons, James Garlock of Jeffersonton, Ky., and William and David of the home; one brother, Ormal Garlock of Akron; a sister, Mrs. Opal Hoffman of Polk, and four grandchildren.

Services will be at 2:30 p.m. Thursday at the Stark Memorial, with Rev. Harold Deitch officiating. Burial will be in Grandview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Memorial Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Joseph Gabauer

WINONA — Mrs. Mary Gabauer, 76, of Winona, died of complications at 4:20 a.m. today in the Town and Country Nursing Home at Salineville following a two-week illness.

Born in Transylvania Feb. 4, 1887, she had been a resident of Winona for 16 years. Her husband, Joseph, died March 11, 1961.

Mrs. Gabauer is survived by five daughters, Mrs. Mary Kalkhoz of Freedom, Pa., Miss Kathryn Barth and Mrs. Margaret Hartman, both of Salem; Mrs. Frances Paulin and Mrs. Elizabeth Stoudt both of Hanover; two stepdaughters, Mrs. Mary Watson and Mrs. Clara Rosing of Pittsburgh, Pa.; 11 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Services will be at 1 p.m. Thursday at the Maple Funeral Home at Kensington, with burial in Hope Cemetery at Salem.

Friends may call at the funeral home Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Gallie Funeral

LISBON — Services for Paul Edmund Gallie, 48, of West Point, will be held Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. at St. George's Church, with the Rev. Fr. William Hohman in charge. Burial will be in Lisbon Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Henry Funeral Home this evening.

point of view' in the administration of state affairs."

Ferment over apportionment has spread rapidly across the nation as a result of the Supreme Court's "Baker vs. Carr" decision in March 1962. The court ruled then for the first time that federal courts have jurisdiction when citizens contend they are victims of "invidious discrimination" in apportionment of state legislatures.

Nobody can keep track of the total number of lawsuits filed since then, but they number at least 78 in 38 states. Fifteen state legislatures have taken some reapportionment action, although not in many cases to the satisfaction of city dwellers. In 17 states reapportionment is in one stage or another of consideration.

Eleven cases are headed for possible decision by the Supreme Court, with more to follow. One prime question remains unanswered. Is it all right to base one house of a legislature on geography, as in Congress, where each state has two senators?

Cases from Maryland and Michigan could be the vehicles for deciding this momentous issue. Maryland's highest court ruled it is legal for the state Senate to be based on geography; Michigan's Supreme Court ruled the opposite.

Behind the cities' drive for proportionate power in legislature is the feeling they are short-changed now on mass transport, education and other metropolitan needs.

Behind the rural bloc's fight is a fear that city waters might ride roughshod over them, neglecting the problems peculiar to the countryside.

No Pinball Machines, Tavern Owners Told

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Liquor Director Donald Cook warned permit holders today of a crackdown on pinball machines.

"Permit holders who have pinball machines on premises are risking suspension or revocation of their liquor permits," Cook said.

Rules Drafted On Interviewing Of Local Students

New regulations have been drawn up by the administration of Salem Schools to avoid problems arising from the rush of colleges to obtain highly sought athletes.

Interviews of high school students by college personnel will now come under the following system:

College representatives will be encouraged to write school officials, principals or guidance counselors for an appointment with the student. The principal or guidance counselor will make an appointment at the close of school hours or during one of the student's study periods. College personnel will be discouraged from dropping in without notice and asking a student questions on the spot.

The administration made it clear that college representatives are welcome to consult with guidance personnel with or without notice.

College coaches or other personnel may confer with head coaches of the various sports and other teachers during their conference periods only.

Kyes Home Relief Worker Is Hired

LISBON — Mrs. Audrey O'Hanlon of Lisbon RD 2, was appointed relief worker at the Kyes Memorial Home in East Palestine at the regular meeting of the county commissioners Monday.

She will work for the superintendent and matron, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fickes, one day a week and will receive $10 per day. Mr. and Mrs. Fickes have worked without any time off since being appointed to their positions shortly after the first of the year.

In other business, Mrs. Thomas Graham, East Liverpool, was appointed a new member of the Retarded Children's Advisory Council.

Slag grants of $300 each were granted to Salem and Washington townships. The commissioners' next meeting will be Thursday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

C. F. Tomlinson, supervisor of parks and recreation, and Mrs. Raymond Stiver, director of the Salem Senior Citizens Club, will attend the 1963 Great Lakes District Recreation Conference in Dayton March 31 through April 3.

One of the speakers will be Tomlinson's uncle, Dr. William W. Tomlinson, noted executive and author, and also vice president of Temple University.

Gibbons Machine Moves to Sebring

Gibbons Salem Machine Co. is going to locate in Sebring because the building it occupied at the corner of W. State St. and N. Howard Ave. has been sold.

Lloyd Gibbons started up his company last November, renting the building from Sekely Tool & Die Co. The latter, however, later sold the brick structure to Lincoln Machine Co.

Gibbons, who has been ill, will rent a building on W. California Ave. in Sebring from the Ritter Corporation of Pittsburgh, which bought it. It is the former location of Veeman Bronze Co. of Sebring.

Gibbons Machine will manufacture a full line of heavy duty and pneumatic and hydraulic cylinders, cushions and bearing blocks. The firm employs about 20 persons, with Ralph Landwert as chief engineer.

The Sebring Businessmen's Association was told of the plant's transfer to Sebring last night at a dinner meeting in Tausch's restaurant by Fred Gaunt, president of the association.

and sickle, the report said.

In New York, Antonio Viciania, head of Alpha 66, said the raiders already have returned to a secret base in the Caribbean and that he expected a full report via short wave radio to Alpha 66 in Miami.

Details of the raid will be disclosed at a news conference in Washington, he said.

The initial report of the raid—the first one made in several months—came in a Miami radio broadcast by "The Voice of the People." This is the refugee program that first reported the presence of Soviet troops in Cuba.

Alpha 66, an action group which does not deal in the fractured politics of most exile groups in Miami, claimed credit for shooting the British ship Newfane and two Cuban vessels in a raid Sept. 10.

Tests

confirm or deny the report.

Each of the preceding four French atomic blasts in the Sahara touched off a series of protests from African nations.

The Moroccan communiqué gave no source for its claim that France had exploded a nuclear device. Speculation has been that the next French test would be of an underground device—the hardest to detect.

France retained control of the Sahara testing bases for five years under the Evian agreements which gave Algeria independence last year. Atomic testing was not mentioned, but the Algerians knew that was what the bases were used for.

Hays In Paris For NATO Conference

Congressman Wayne L. Hays has gone to Paris where he will attend the opening session on Thursday of the special committee set up by the 15 NATO nations to study the feasibility of combining the Council of Europe, the NATO Parliamentarians Conference, and the proposed OECD Parliamentary Conference into an Atlantic Consultative Assembly.

Hays will represent the United States at these talks. He will be in London two days for conversations with the Right Honorable the Lord Crathorne, president of the NATO Parliamentarians Conference.

Before leaving for Europe, the congressman had consultations with Secretary Rusk and McGeorge Bundy, special assistant to the President for national security affairs.

Goshen Ruritans Hear Juvenile Officer

Donald Roberts, juvenile probation officer for Mahoning County, was guest speaker on the subject of juvenile delinquency when 25 members of the Goshen Center Ruritan Club met Monday evening at the Hippity-Hop Restaurant on Route 62.

Keith Laughlin presided at the business session and welcomed eight guests. Roger Greenmeyer and Donald Behner were received into membership.

John Reddy of the Maple Ridge club was present and announced that the annual spring dinner meeting will be April 27 at West Branch High School.

The board of directors will meet April 3 in the home of Gordon Santee of East Goshen, and the next regular club meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. April 15 at the Hippity-Hop Restaurant.

The first University Press was established at Cornell University in 1869.

School Building Program Proposed

Junior High School building will make it possible to increase library space, expand shop and art facilities and provide unified storage and maintenance headquarters for the entire school system.

"2. Replace out-moded heating plant at the Junior High building and provide storm windows where necessary to minimize heat loss for economy and more comfortable classrooms. Improve exterior of Junior High School building and grounds, particularly along Lincoln Avenue side and possible enlargement of school grounds.

Add to Other Elementary Buildings

"5. Build additional classroom space in remaining elementary and provide improvements in existing facilities where needed.

"Since our present facilities will enable us to operate our present program until the real Junior High enrollment pressure hits in 1966-67, we propose financing the program on a 'pay as you go' basis. Such a program would enable the above building proposals to be carried out without the expense of the usual costly long term interest costs associated with building bond issues.

"Based on our present evaluation of $48 million dollars, a building fund levy of not to exceed 2.5 mills would see the completion of the above building program by 1976, at which time our present total indebtedness would be paid off and the city school system would have no bonded indebtedness.

Asks Reactivating of Citizens Council

"The substantial community sentiment opposed to incorporating the old Post Office building in the school system seems to be coupled with an equally strong sentiment in favor of developing a long range building program as outlined herein. In order that this sentiment and public interest be further encouraged, and to assist the board in completing this 10 year plan, we would welcome the re-activating of the Citizens Council, which has always placed positive emphasis on a superior educational program. We believe the foregoing plan is necessary and desirable to maintain this worthwhile goal."

"Such a Citizens Council might be divided into appropriate sub-

Dystrophy Group Hears Talk by Salem Student

Miss Rosemary Fithian and her father, John Fithian of Salem, were guests at a meeting of the Columbiana County Chapter of the Muscular Dystrophy Association in Lisbon Monday.

Miss Fithian, a ninth grader at Salem Junior High School and first place winner in the recent science fair at the school, spoke on the "Defeat of Muscular Dystrophy" and showed her science project to the group.

A certificate of award was presented to her by Miss Jane Royle of Salem, campaign chairman.

John Cosma, of Lisbon president, conducted the busness meeting. Letters were read from the national officer concerning two clinical conferences in New Orleans and Los Angeles.

Eric Nyberg of Salem was appointed by the president to the executive committee to replace Mrs. Agnes Ford for the remainder of the year.

The budget committee, which will prepare the budget for 1963-64, is as follows: Mrs. Leo Jenkins of Rogers, Cosma, Miss Royle, Nybert, Mrs. Albert Beeson and Mrs. Robert Talbot of Salem.

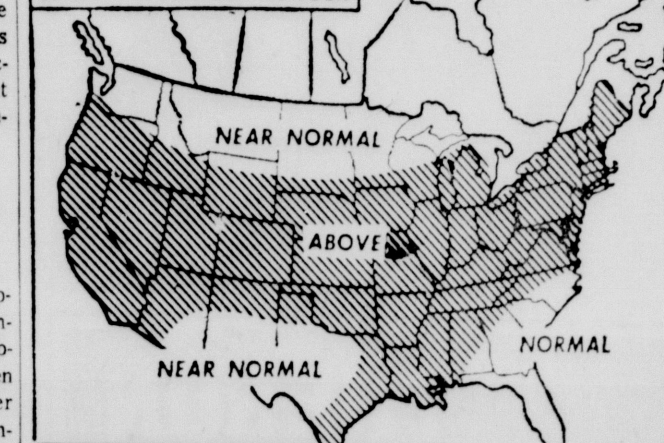

Discussion was held on the Columbiana County Fair in August and the Beaver Local Booster Spring Festival in June. The group voted to sponsor a display booth at both fairs. Mrs. Jenkins will report progress at the next meeting.

Mrs. Jenkins, patients service chairman, reported that there are 11 patients in the county.

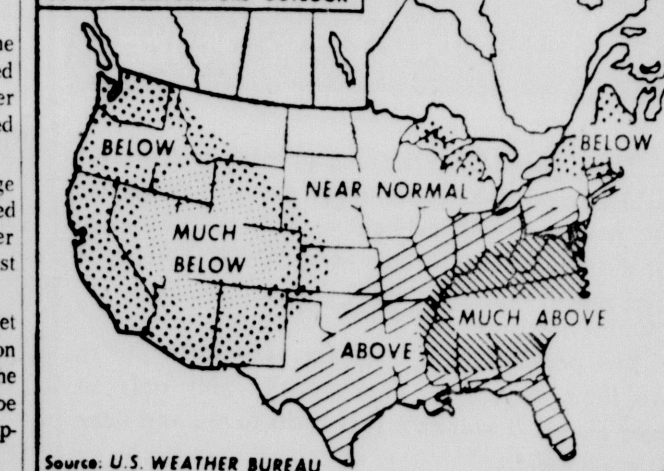

Miss Royle, in the final report of the MDA fund drive in November, announced that a total of $4,194.68 was collected toward the goal of $6,000.

Next meeting will be April 15 at the VFW Post Home in Lisbon.
